Haskayne School of Business

BUSINESS TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT

Bachelor of Commerce (BComm)

Business Technology Management looks at how new and existing information technology can help improve business processes. This program will help you analyze business processes and problems, design appropriate technology-based solutions to business problems, and communicate solutions and their value in business terms. You'll complete formal presentations, group projects and various case studies during the course of your degree.

Naheed Nenshi
BComm’93
Nenshi has been the Mayor of Calgary since 2013. He is the first Canadian winner of the World Mayor Prize by the City Mayors Foundation, which he won in 2015.

“This concentration offers a unique opportunity to study a blend of traditional management practice and theory with technical information systems topics, such as database management and systems design. I transferred from computer science, as it expanded my scope of study to include bigger organizational implications.

Scott S., BComm’14
