GENERAL COMMERCE

Bachelor of Commerce (BComm)

A general commerce concentration will allow you to pick concentration courses rather than taking specific fourth-year courses leading to a structured concentration area. The generalist orientation of this degree will enable you to succeed in a range of diverse industries and positions. Organizations often seek candidates with relevant education and related work, volunteer and extracurricular activities. You’ll complete formal presentations, group projects and various case studies during the course of your degree.

Naheed Nenshi
BComm’93
Nenshi has been the Mayor of Calgary since 2013. He is the first Canadian winner of the World Mayor Prize by the City Mayors Foundation, which he won in 2015.

“Being a general business studies undergraduate gave me the flexibility to explore and pursue my interests in a variety of disciplines. Some of the more memorable experiences were doing the Haskayne Wilderness Retreat, a mock HR arbitration, and meeting peers from all majors at the Haskayne School of Business. The co-op program also helped set up my early career success.
