Haskayne School of Business

REAL ESTATE

Bachelor of Commerce (BComm)

Real estate scholars explore best practices in leadership, entrepreneurship, sustainability and stakeholder relations in the context of the land development and real estate industry. You’ll gain foundational business knowledge related to real estate, and develop an applied understanding of the field of real estate by learning from industry experts. You’ll complete projects, formal presentations, group projects and various case studies during the course of your degree.
