I felt immediately welcomed into the classroom and community of the women’s studies program. As a cis-male, I have learned so much not only about myself, but also about the struggles and experiences of women in our society. I sometimes forget that not every student is enrolled in these classes, as it feels like such an important experience that everyone should be a part of.

WOMEN’S STUDIES

Bachelor of Arts (BA)

Women’s Studies is concerned with the diversity of women. In this program you’ll explore the social construction and variability of gender, and how power relations linked to race and ethnicity, social class, sexual orientation and ability/disability impact the lives of women locally and globally. During the course of your studies you’ll gain creative thinking skills, research and analytical capabilities, written and verbal communication skills, and cross-disciplinary understandings.

Did You Know?

Our co-operative (co-op) education program will help you gain career-related work experience. You’ll alternate study semesters at university with work semesters that involve 12-16 weeks of full-time, paid work placements.
